

Dear

We are delighted to inform you that this winter, there will be a Sunday afternoon recital at the Wedgewood on November 11, 2010 and we will continue the Sunday afternoon series at the Wedgewood on the last Sunday of January, February and March. More news on these intimate concerts later!

In the meantime, tickets for the upcoming classical concerts are now on sale for you! Our kick-off concert, the wonderful Sinfonia Toronto matinee on Sunday, September 26th, will be followed by an elegant light supper in the theatre lobby, for the first fifty music lovers to reserve their tickets (see menu and details below). Also, all subscribers to the fall series automatically become "privileged members" of the Brockville Concert Association (classical) entitling them to special benefits. Please consult the enclosed brochure for detailed information on this year's concerts and artists. We are sure you will agree it is a most impressive line-up and you will not want to miss a single one!

Subscription/Membership: $110.00 for all four concerts, including $11.50 HST and $10.00 service charge. Single tickets are $35.00 each, including $3.74 HST and $2.50 service charge. Your membership cards will be available for pick up at the Arts Centre as of August 23rd 2010, upon proof of your subscription purchase. In addition to the best choice of seats, your membership card entitles you to the following benefits:

- two free youth (up to 18 years) tickets for any or all of the last three concerts,
- entry into several draws for prizes,
- a tax receipt upon the return to the Brockville Concert Association (NOT the Arts Centre) of unused subscription tickets
- priority, up until August 31, 2010, to reserve your tickets for the opening gala supper in the theatre lobby on September 26 (only 50 places available).

Opening Gala: In keeping with the occasion, cocktail attire is requested. Tickets are $55.00 a person, fine wines and taxes included. The fortunate fifty ticket holders will gather at the foot of the stage to enjoy a pre-supper drink of sparkling wine with gourmet canapés, to allow the other concert goers to exit the theatre and tables to be set up in the lobby. Your choice of main dish and wine (please turn over for menu and reservation coupon) will be accompanied by artisan breads, Parisienne potatoes and a fresh vegetable medley. Dessert is followed by coffee or tea. Soft drinks and beer may be purchased from the bar as well as more fine wine. To secure your places at this festive celebration of our 63rd season, please return the reservation form on the back of this letter, to the Brockville Concert Association (NOT the Arts Centre) indicating your choices of main dish and wine. Your cheque made out to the Brockville Concert Association can be post dated up to September 15, 2010, when the cheques will be processed. We regret that after this date, we are unable to accept cancellations/refunds (unless we have a waiting list). If your paid ticket(s) cannot be used, we will issue you a tax receipt.

We have enclosed a donation coupon should you wish to contribute to ensuring that top quality concerts, continue to be presented in Brockville.

Best regards,

Carol Reesor, President
Brockville Concert Association
